

Black History Month

Lucy F. Simms Center

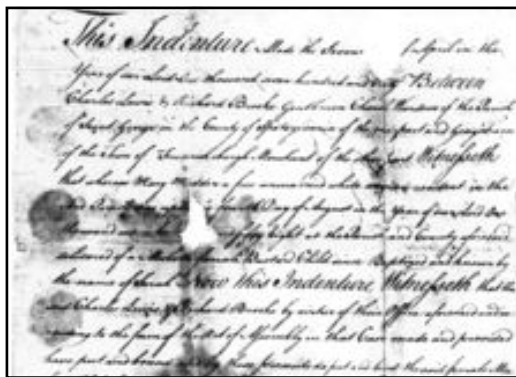

Feb. 8, 7:00pm: Sarah Madden,
“We were always free!”

Feb. 13, 2:00pm: One Room Schools and the Students They Served

Feb. 17, 7:00pm: “I didn’t get to say goodbye”
A reading of the Narrative of the Life of J. H. Banks
Born in Rockingham County.

Sarah Madden,
Montpelier,
Indentured Servant

Feb. 8

I AM A WITNESS AGAINST AMERICAN SLAVERY AND ALL ITS HORRORS.

A NARRATIVE OF EVENTS
OF THE
LIFE OF J. H. BANKS, AN ESCAPED SLAVE,
FROM THE COTTON STATE, ALABAMA, IN AMERICA.

Feb. 17

Our Readers Reverend Harold Brown, Sr.,
Sister Judith Brown, John Butler, Ronnie
Brandon and Monica Robinson will bring this story to life. Included in our reading
“I didn’t get to say goodbye” an original poem by Reverend Harold Brown, Sr.

Sponsors: The Shenandoah Valley Black Heritage Project and Harrisonburg Parks and Recreation

www.valleyblackheritage.org

robinlyttle@valleyblackheritage.org; text/call 540 908-1020