

Black History Month

Lucy F. Simms Center

POSTPONED TO: MARCH 3, 7:00PM

“I didn’t get to say goodbye”

A reading of the Narrative of the Life of J. H. Banks, Born in Rockingham County.

I AM A WITNESS AGAINST AMERICAN SLAVERY AND ALL ITS HORRORS.

*A NARRATIVE OF EVENTS OF THE
LIFE OF J. H. BANKS, AN ESCAPED SLAVE, FROM THE COTTON STATE, ALABAMA, IN AMERICA.*

Our Readers Reverend Harold Brown, Sr., Sister Judith Brown, John Butler, Ronnie Brandon and Monica Robinson will bring this story to life. Included in our reading “I didn’t get to say goodbye” an original poem by Reverend Harold Brown, Sr.

Sponsors: The Shenandoah Valley Black Heritage Project and Harrisonburg Parks and Recreation

www.valleyblackheritage.org

robinlyttle@valleyblackheritage.org; text/call 540 908-1020